Helping Employers Understand the Illinois Nursing Mothers in the Workplace Act

In this brand new CD, Wessels Sherman Shareholder and Senior Attorney Nancy Joerg explains the details of the Illinois Nursing Mothers Act and gives her thoughts, as a management-side employment lawyer, on this important Illinois law which often confuses employers and human resource professionals.

In just one incredibly valuable hour, this down to earth CD will simply explain how Illinois employers have a legal obligation to cooperate with employees when the employee wishes to pump breast milk in the workplace for the employee's baby, or if the employee wishes to nurse the baby in the workplace.

This brand new CD is filled with examples and practical advice. Attorney Joerg uses plain English to explain this short but often confusing law. She goes over the law step by step.
