

RED ALERT TO ALL ILLINOIS TRUCKING COMPANIES

“All Illinois trucking companies who use independent contractor/owner-operators should do a self-audit,” urges Wessels Sherman Senior Attorney and Shareholder Nancy Joerg. “We are pleased to announce that we have developed a CD especially for Illinois trucking companies to help them in this critical task.”

Our informative CD, Understanding the New IDES Law: Defining Independent Contractor/Owner-Operators, summarizes the key points of the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES) law, Section 212.1 — defining independent contractor status for truck drivers (owner-operators). The information on this CD should be particularly valuable for trucking companies that use independent contractor/owner-operators in Illinois.

Understanding the New IDES Law: Defining Independent Contractor/Owner-Operators features a discussion between Nancy Joerg and a trucking company owner. Their conversation is in a fun and very easy to understand discussion format explaining the key provisions of this new law.

Listeners will find a wide variety of “Do’s & Don’ts” for how to treat owner-operators so that they will not be reclassified from independent contractors to employees for IDES purposes. The CD is easy to understand — plain English — 32 minutes long. It is professionally produced by our friends at Masterpiece Audio Productions.

The audience for Understanding the New IDES Law: Defining Independent Contractor/Owner-Operators should include:

- Owners,
- Presidents and Vice Presidents,
- Managers,
- Safety Directors,
- Dispatchers,
- Administrators,
- Human Resource people, and
- the truck drivers (owner-operators) themselves.

A GOOD IDEA:
